

Hi All,

Bodmin Airfield are featuring the comedy show (details below) on 29th June 2019 and I feel it would be most suitable for other airfields who may wish to also bring something different to their own airfield venue. Please let me know if this would be right for your 'audience' and then between us we can provide a workable tour for this worthwhile travelling enterprise.

All the best

Over to the boys to explain the detail...

June 13th and 14th 2019 marks the 100th Anniversary of Alcock and Brown's courageous, exhilarating and historic first ever non-stop flight across the Atlantic, and to mark the occasion, multiple Award Winning theatre company The Foundry Group (<http://www.foundrygroup.co.uk/>) are reviving their critically acclaimed, very funny and hugely popular two man show featuring a cast of thousands and a "reproduction" of the flight, THOSE MAGNIFICENT MEN!

We are playing all sorts of venues, but are looking to take the piece to as many Airfields, Airports, Aviation and Technology/Engineering museums as we can muster.

It always goes down a storm with aviation enthusiasts and the general public alike and we have had many warm and detailed conversations with pilots and ground staff of several generations along the way. We can perform the thing virtually anywhere too, as long as there's a couple of plugs.

PLEASE FIND BELOW further details about the show; click on the blue hyperlinks for reviews, clips, audience testimony etc.

We look forward to hearing from you and hope you can find time and space in your events calendar next year for us to put on a "flight" for you!

Best Wishes,

David Mounfield

It's back! The thrilling true story of the first ever non-stop transatlantic flight as told by acclaimed writing duo Mitchell & Nixon returns in this side-splitting new production.

The Foundry Group is proud to join forces with award-winning BBC4 sketch group The Ornate Johnsons for this brand new staging of the hit play about British pioneering aviators Capt. John Alcock and Lt. Arthur Whitten Brown and their daredevil dash across the Atlantic in the tiny open cockpit of a converted Vickers biplane. In this glorified kite they flew from Newfoundland through dense fog, sleet, snow and hail – sometimes upside down – to Ireland and worldwide celebrity.

What made them do it?

Why have they been forgotten?

And how on earth can a couple of actors tell it all with just cardboard, two chairs and some left-over props?

A top-hole cast, including ‘Count Arthur Strong’s Radio Show’ and ‘This Is Jinsy’ regular David Mounfield, guarantees the show takes flight. So strap yourself in and cry “Chocks away!” for a night of thrills, spills and uproarious comedy.
